MISSOURI is still joined to her idols. DEMOCRATS generally feel best on years-and this is a way off.

THE old scratch seem to have got into the ballot boxes this year.

THERE is no cause for discouragement or despondency on the part of Republicans.

GOVERNOR Cornell could have carried New York by a handsome majority but the "machine" didn't like him-The people sat down on the machine. They did not like it. This is the story in brief.

During the war a half dozen batteries would bang away at each other for two or three solid hours with only a broken wheel or a dead horse to show for it, but now-a-days every little celeand killed. In fact the salute business is becoming a public calamity, and it is'nt stooped. Just the other day at the Penn celebration a half dozen persons were terribly mutilated and torn by the bursting of a mortar.

REGULAR BULL-RUN.

"Whom the Lord Loveth He Chastneth.

The Graphic presents the latest returns available up to Thursday morning. They are necessarily very condensed. In many states majorities are only.

Even Little Kansas has the Jim-

Jams.

MISSOURI-Partial returns from the first district indicate Hatch's election by over two thousand majority. Adair county complete, Glover 387 majority. Full democratic delegation in congress with exception of McLean, who is elected for the short term over Broadhead. St. Louis elects a portion

NEW YORK---Probable gain of three democratic congressmen. A Times extra puts Cleveland's majority at up to 10 a. m., and says the State Legislature is largely Democratic. The World makes Cleveland's majority at 170.000, and that of Slocum for Congressman-at-large 100,000 The latest reports increase the Democratic majority eyerywhere, and indicate that fortyfive out of the sixty counties have gone

INDIANA-Democrats claim a gain of tour congressmen. Three hundred and fifty voting places in the State show ocratic loss of 1,663 being net Democent. of the State, and indicates a Democratic majority in the state of 5,500.

MASSACHUSETTS. Even at Republican head-quarters Butler's election is conceded, the only question being that of majority. Leopold Morse, horse was badly injured. His should- Dem., for Congress, defeats Bowman in the Fifth District: Theodore Lyman, Civil Service Independent candicows, one of sheep. R. R. Wells went date in the Ninth District, defeats John W. Candler; Governor Long is probably elected to Congress from the Second District. Returns received indicate the election of Patrick A. Collins, Dem., in the Fourth. The election of Henry B. Lovering, Dem., in the Sixth, is probable. Eber F. Stone, Rep. is elected in the Seveuth: Wm. Wheting, Rep , is elected in the Elevelection. We judge he must be dead. enth; Geo. D. Robinson, Rep. is elect-We sa w Dr, Wilson going down that ed in the Twelfth; Davis, Ranney and Lovering are elected to Congress from the First, Third, and Sixth districts, respectively. Indications are that the hundred feet and is still going down House will stand 150 Republicans to Last year the Senate had 5 Democrats; than 3,000 in the First District. Nelthis year they will have 12.

LATER: Butler's majority is claimed by the Republicans to be 20,000;

ARKANSAS-Returns from interior precincts come in slowly. The Ga- Windom. zette claims the election of the entire Democratic ticket.

Connecticut-Waller, Democrat, is elected Governor by from 2,000 to wo Congressmen, electing three.

GEORGIA-Democratic as usual. SOUTH CAROLINA-Of course.

One Republican elected to Congress. NEW HAMPSHIRE-In doubt.

TEXAS-As usual. ALABAMA-Likewise. One Republican Congressman elected. NEW JERSEY-Democrats have received a clean majority on joint ballot in the Legislature thus securing a United States Senator.

MICHIGAN .- Returns are incomplete and come in very slowly. In the First district Lord, Republican is defeated. The balance of the Congressmen in the State are probably republican, but the Fourth and Fifth districts are close. Begole, Democrat and Greenback, is probably elected Governor by a small majority. The balance of the State ticket is Republican.

NORTH CAROLINA-The whisky issue fails to affect the democratic vote as it does the republicans. The state is doubtless democratic.

DELAWARE-Has doubtless gone democratic by increased majorities.

FLORIDA-Hooray !-- From what can yet be ascertained it appears the republicans have carried the State by a small majority.

NEBRASKA-Returns are meager elected. The woman's sufferage amendment is defeated by a very J. H. RAUH, PRACTICAL. large majority thoughout the State.

IOWA-The Republican majority is probably 20,000 with nine congressmen. Farewell, Republican, is defeated in the Second District, and the Tie-makers have about all left the Sixth District is close between Cutts, Republican and Weaver, Greenback, Splendid weather for corn gathering with the chances in Cutt's favor. In J. C. I this district Cason has a majority over all of 2,000, and a plurality of over WISCONSIN-Large Democratic gains reported throughout the State. The State Legislature is Republican in both branches, with heavy Republican losses however.

Additional local returns received up to noon to-day make sure the election of five Republican and four Democrat Congressmen. The Democrats gain two. Ten Republican and seven Democratic State Senators were elected, the Democratic gain being four. The next merely estimated from partial returns State Senate will stand · Republicans, 20: Democrats, 13.

LOUISIANA-The State has gone Democratic by about the usual majorities. The third Congressional district is still in doubt, but later advices indicate probable Democratic success.

VIRGINIA,-The election of the following Congressmen is claimed: Garof the republican ticket including rison in the First District, Geo. D. Wise, in the Third. Tucker in the Sixth. Barbour in the Eighth. The coalitionists are jubilant and claim John S. Wise for Congressman at large by from 15,000 174,000, according to returns received to 25,000, also claim six Congressmen -Mayo in the first, Libbey in the sec- Malone, r., 1519; Wilkes. d., 1255, ond, Hooper in the Fourth, Sims in the Hope g. 313. Fifth, Paul in the Seventh, and Bowen in the Ninth.

> KENTUCKY-The Republicans, claim four congressmen. The Democrats conceded the election of Culbertson, Republican in the Ninth District, but nothing more.

CALIFORNIA-A full vote is reported, giving the Democrats a majority of perhaps 3,000. The defection a Republican loss of 4.856. The Dem- from the Republican ranks is due to the Sunday law question. The count cratic gain of 3,253. This is 211/2 per of the city up to midnight, being partial returns from all points, indicate a majority for Stoneman of about 10,000 on a total vote. The democrats have probably elected all but one congress- 622. man and it is thought the democrats will have a working majority in the legislature.

> COLORADO.-It is estimated at the Democratic headquarters, that Grant's majority for Governor is at Link 590, Richey 576, Sees 527, Erwin least 3,000; Wallace. Democrat, for 423. Congress, 1,800. The Democratic bin 448, Brown 100. State ticket is all elected. There are large gains in the Legislature. The House is Democratic

TENNESSEE .- The Readjuster democrats have elected their candidate for Governor and a large majority in he Legislature. MARYLAND .- - Republicans gain one Congressman in Maryland and the ndependent Judicial ticket in elected in Baltimore by 11,000 majority. MINNESOTA .-- Congressman Wash-son, Republican, is unquestionably elected, making the Minnesota delegation solid Republican. The Legislature will be Republican by a somewhat reduced majority. It is estimated that three-fourths of the Republican members favor the election of Senator PENNSYLVANIA.-Steady Dem.

ocratic gains continue to be reported-Pattison has probably carried the State by 25,000. The Democrats gain all the close districts from which returns 3,000 majority. The Democrats gain have been received, which involves a loss to the Republicans of Barr in Cameron's home district. Scranton in the Luzerne district, and Errett in Allegheny. There is no reason to believe that the Republicans have lost the Legislature, but the Senate will be anti-Cameron. Ex-United States Senator Wallace is elected to the State Senate in the Thirty-fourth District. Boyle Democrat, is elected in the Twentyfirst District, and Hopkins will probably defeat Errett, Republican, in the Twenty-second. The Democrats have gained at least ten Congressmen. Almost complete returns from the various counties give Pattison a plurality of ILLINOIS .- This seems to be about the only State not scoring large Democratic gains. Returns are meager, but give about the usual majorities. Singleton is elected in the Quincy district over the regular Democratic

KANSAS.-Kansas gives a Republican majority except for governor. Glick, democrat, is probably elected over St. John by a small majority. He was supported by the democratic, bolting republican, and whiskey anti-prohibitton element. This will enable our "Professor" to trot out one of biggest roosters, and crow over the "victory" in Kansas. Dispatches from Topeka say the State Central Committee, while B. Formerty of Kimball's Chicago Music House not conceding the election of Glick F. C. BILLINGS, (Dem.), yet express themselves as thinking it probable. It is believed that while the House will not have a majority of Republicans who were nominated at the Republican convention, yet, as many of the members ran TOHN W. JOHNSTON, as Independent Republicans, they will act with the party on all political quesand scattering but indicate a greatly tions. The Senate holds over and stands thirty-nine Republicans to one
